Hello again

Please let me know if you can attend and can share info. Like I said below, sharing the shuttle map and schedule would be a good thing.

Hi Lorena and Elise

We have our last big planning meeting with the Navy and other Fleet Week partners this Wednesday 10-noon. You are invited to attend and even give an update on the downtown activities, First Thursday, etc., and red car trolley. You could show some slides like trolley map or pass it out.

I hope you will attend and welcome you to provide any updates you can. We have been mostly focused on event logistics at the past meeting and I think this meet will be an opportunity to shift gears and give our partners a real flavor for what the community has in store for them

Thanks and let me know if you want me to put you on the agenda

Arley

Hello All,

We sent out and invite last week to all the local businesses, included it in our property owner newsletter, sent out another reminder today and hand delivered flyers to the local businesses. If they don't show up, it's not because they didn't know about it.

See you all tomorrow.

Best regards,

Lorena Parker

I do – I just can't get a handle on how many. Will you show your PowerPoint on Fleet Week?
